

Please do not change the no-call legislation. I pay for a phone for my convenience, not for the marketing needs of those who want to sell me something. My privacy rights should preclude a seller's right to harrass me.